

Mini-FAQ

1. What kinds of projects do schools burn and print on CDs and DVDs?

- Teacher disc sets
- Senior class videos
- Video yearbooks
- Graduation DVDs
- Promotional and marketing DVDs
- Plays, concerts and other performances
- Memory videos
- Student projects
- Sports highlights and training videos
- Fundraiser discs
- Backups of software
- Student-produced videos
- Lesson plan discs
- Teacher and student handbooks
- Marching band videos
- Parent's keepsake videos
- Documentation
- Resource CDs
- Rehearsal CDs for band, choir and orchestra
- Photo Story and PowerPoint® projects
- School TV news DVDs
- And much more!

2. Which schools already use Primera disc publishers?

Thousands of educational institutions – from K-12 through colleges and universities to community and adult education programs – use Bravo Disc Publishers. Some of them include:

- All of the Big Ten universities
- Over 75% of "Ivy League" universities
- Over 25% of all colleges and universities in the USA
- More than 2000 K-12 schools

3. What types of computers are supported?

All current Windows® versions including XP, Vista® and Windows 7 along with Mac® OS 10.5 or higher.

4. Is there an educational discount?

YES! A $250 rebate is available to all qualified educational institutions. Simply make your best deal through a Primera Authorized Reseller and send in the rebate form found at www.primera.com/edurebate.

5. How can I get more information along with sample burned and printed discs?

Call 1-800-797-2772 and ask to speak with an Education Sales Specialist. Or email to sales@primera.com.